Board Seeks Nominations for Appointments to Consumer Advisory Council

The Federal Reserve Board announced that it is seeking nominations for appointments to its Consumer Advisory Council (CAC). The Council advises the Board on the exercise of its responsibilities under various consumer financial services laws and on other matters. The group meets in Washington, D.C., three times a year. Ten new members will be appointed to serve three-year terms beginning in January 2008.

Nominations should include a résumé and the following information about nominees:

- Complete name, title, address, telephone, e-mail address, and fax number
- Organization's name, brief description of organization, address, telephone and fax numbers
- Past and present positions, dates, and descriptions of responsibilities
- Knowledge, interests or experience related to community reinvestment, consumer protection regulations, consumer credit, or other consumer financial services
- Positions held in community and banking associations, councils, and boards

Nominations should also include the complete name, organization name, title, address, telephone number, e-mail address, and fax number of the nominator. Letters of nomination with complete information, including a résumé for each nominee, must be received by August 24, 2007. Nominations not received by August 24 may not be considered.

Electronic nominations are preferred. The appropriate form can be accessed at the following link:
<http://www.federalreserve.gov/forms/cacnominationform.cfm>

If electronic submission is not possible, the nominations can be mailed (not sent by fax) to the following address:

Sheila Maith, Assistant Director and Community Affairs Officer
Division of Consumer and Community Affairs
Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System
Washington, DC 20551.
