

JOE KEENEY

*Chief Executive Officer
4th Sector Solutions*

Joe Keeney is the founder and CEO of 4th Sector Solutions Inc., an education consulting firm that provides organizational capacity building and business process management services to public charter and private educational organizations. Joe has over fifteen years of education industry and consulting experience. His portfolio of school development projects includes approximately 50 sites, 3.5 million square feet, and $700 million of project costs. From 1997-2005 he was with Edison Schools Inc., where he was president of Edison Charter Schools, and had responsibility for charter school operations, client development, finance, and real estate. He had previously been a divisional president and chief operating officer of a Fortune 1000 global manufacturer, and a corporate strategy consultant at LEK Consulting Inc.

Joe has a MBA with high distinction from Harvard Business School, where he was elected a Baker Scholar and received the Macy Scholarship and the Ullmann Award. He also has an Ed.M. in education leadership from Teachers College, Columbia University, and a B.A. in economics from Columbia College.