

The Arizona Foreclosure Prevention Task Force has arranged with the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco and
Wells Fargo Bank to provide

Foreclosure Prevention/Loss Mitigation Training for Faith-Based Organizations and Other Interested Social Workers

This highly informative session highlights foreclosure prevention and related topics including:

- Overview of local foreclosures and foreclosure prevention efforts
- The basics of loss mitigation
- The lender/investor/servicer relationship
- General mortgage loan servicing requirements
- Loss mitigation options
- Loss Mitigation and Foreclosure Prevention resources for consumer
- Best Practices in consumer education and outreach

Who should attend?

Faith-Based Organizations

Public officials involved in foreclosures

Social workers

Housing counselors*

Anyone who has occasion to work with homeowners at risk of a potential foreclosure

This training, supported by the Arizona Foreclosure Prevention Task Force provides important information on foreclosure prevention and loss mitigation resources for sustaining homeownership in your community. You are encouraged to share this announcement with others that may have an interest.

**This session is a non-certification training that provides an introduction to foreclosure issues and loss mitigation resources.*

Date/Time: Wednesday, November 12, 2008

10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. – Training (lunch will be provided)

Location: Wells Fargo Conference Center – Room A

100 W. Washington Street., Phoenix, AZ 85003

Directions: The Conference Center is on the ground floor of the Well Fargo Plaza, across the breezeway from the banking offices. Park in garage location at 2nd Avenue and Van Buren; walk 2 blocks south on 2nd Ave to Adams. (Parking validations available at meeting.)

There is no charge, but ADVANCE registration is required. Space is limited.

Register online for this event at: <http://www.frbsf.org/community/resources/events.html>