

Transforming Mortgage Servicing: Developments in California Law

April 5, 2013 · San Francisco | April 19, 2013 · Irvine | May 3, 2013 · Fresno

This spring marks a critical juncture for two of the California Attorney General's key foreclosure prevention initiatives: the National Mortgage Settlement and the Homeowner Bill of Rights.

These events will provide an opportunity for advocates, legal aid attorneys, housing counselors, judges, and private attorneys to learn about these initiatives. The topics covered include:

- Consumer Relief delivered under the National Mortgage Settlement
- Servicing Standards progress
- California Monitor Program's Initiatives
- Overview of Homeowner Bill of Rights law
- Resources for HBOR litigation
- Synthesis of HBOR with National Mortgage Settlement, CFPB servicing rules, and other laws

Presented by the California Monitor Program in cooperation with the State Bar of California and the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco. A similar program will be featured at each location. Participants should attend only one of the dates.

Locations and MCLE Credit (Approval Pending):

Federal Reserve Bank of SF, San Francisco—4.00 hours general, 1.25 hours legal ethics

UC Irvine School of Law, Irvine—5.00 hours general, 1.25 hours legal ethics

Venue TBA, Fresno—4.00 hours general, 1.25 hours legal ethics

CALIFORNIA MONITOR

A PROGRAM OF THE CALIFORNIA ATTORNEY GENERAL

Events are free, but RSVP is required at <http://www.eventbrite.com/event/5722397846>. Seating is limited. Registrants will receive additional information and are welcome to attend the location most convenient for them.

Contact Jennifer Song at jsong@law.uci.edu with questions.