

DATA SNAPSHOT

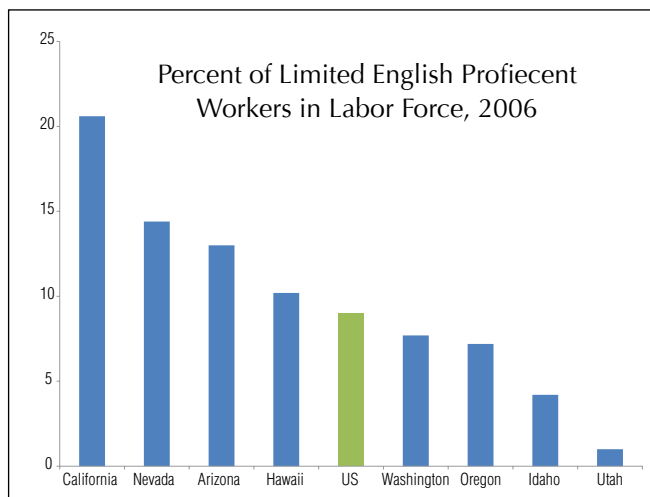

TRENDS IN UNEMPLOYMENT

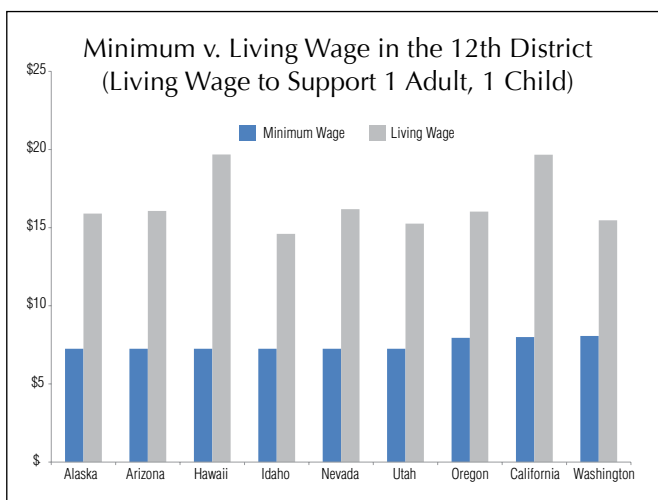

Source: Bureau of Labor Statistics

Number of jobs lost in the 12th District: 1,086,500

In 2006, California's laborforce had twice as many limited english proficient workers than the national average.

Source: 2006 American Community Survey

Source: Poverty in America – Living Wage Calculator

In 2007, the percent of the nation's labor force that worked at least 27 weeks and lived below the poverty line: 5.1