

A Symposium on the “Revived Bretton Woods System:
A New Paradigm for Asian Development?”

Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco,
Friday February 4, 2005

Sponsors: Center for Pacific Basin Studies, Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco
Clausen Center for International Business and Policy, UC Berkeley

Organizers: Reuven Glick, Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco
Andrew Rose, UC Berkeley
Mark Spiegel, Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco

Program

12:00 Buffet Lunch

1:15 Welcome Remarks:
Janet Yellen, Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco

1:30 Introduction:
Michael Dooley, UC Santa Cruz
Peter Garber, Deutsche Bank

2:00 Panel 1
History:
Barry Eichengreen, UC Berkeley
Current Account Sustainability:
Maurice Obstfeld, UC Berkeley
Reserve Currencies, Center/Anchor Countries:
Nouriel Roubini, New York University

3:30 Coffee Break

4:00 Panel 2.
China:
Nicholas Lardy, Institute for International Economics
Asia ex-China:
Steven Kamin, Board of Governors
US, Europe:
Edwin Truman, Institute for International Economics

5:30 Reception

