

Brief Biography of Brandon Khoo

Brandon Khoo is the Executive General Manager (EGM) for the Specialised Institutions Division (SID) of the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA).

Brandon joined APRA in 1999. He has many years of diverse prudential regulation experience in banking, insurance and pension. Prior to his career in prudential supervision, he spent a number of years in the audit profession with a specific focus on the financial industry.

Specialised Institutions Division (SID) is one of the two frontline supervision divisions in APRA, the other being Diversified Institutions Division (DID). As an EGM, Brandon sits on APRA's Management and Executive Committees.

Brandon is a chartered accountant and is a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia.
